

I urge you to allow XM and Sirius satellite based radio systems to broadcast local information. I see it as an open market issue. We all know that competition is what makes us all better at whatever we do. This is the best for the consumer and the suppliers.

Thanks, Ken Savells